
Sweet Dairy-Free Deals - Hot Chocolate, Maple Syrup, Honey, and More!

In the past there were foods that I considered "luxuries," but thanks to online purchasing, I can get many of my loves for a fraction of grocery store prices. This month's mega-deals (as rated by me) seem to revolve around the sweet stuff (tis' the season). I have just recently ordered the honey and maple syrup, and am attempting to hold off my temptations to buy the hot chocolate and candy, but may give in before month end! Okay, onto the deals and discounts ...

Combine this month's 35% discount (use coupon code) with Amazon's already discounted price, throw in the Subscribe & Save for 15% off and super-fast shipping (Subscribe & Save is free, and can be cancelled at anytime without loss of your discount). Head to the Coombs Sale to take advantage of this crazy deal! (Note: Amazon offered this deal last month, but it seems they have extended it through October 31, 2009)
